

HISTORY AND GOVERNANCE

Northern State University was established in 1901 by the South Dakota Legislature in response to the need for an institution of higher education to serve northern South Dakota. NSU is a student-centered institution, offering degrees at the associate, bachelor's, and master's level that demonstrate a commitment to academic excellence and provide global learning opportunities. The university is led by a governor-appointed Board of Regents; nine members hold six-year terms, while one student regent is appointed for a limited term.

LOCATION AND CAMPUS

Northern State University is located in Aberdeen, South Dakota, a community of over 28,000 in the northeastern corner of the state. The campus sits on 72 acres and has six residential buildings, 11 academic buildings, two auditoriums, two fitness centers, 6 tennis courts and two athletic fields. NSU recently completed a multi-million dollar renovation of the Johnson Fine Arts Center, and more major construction projects are currently underway or set to begin soon. One new residence hall, Wolves Memorial Suites, opened on campus in fall 2017. Two more residence halls are under construction and will open in 2018. An upcoming campus master plan will include more changes and additions for Northern. The Aberdeen community boasts a rural atmosphere while offering a variety of cultural activities and easy access to more metropolitan areas via a regional airport and two U.S. highways.
