South Dakota Board of Regents Marlin R. Scarborough Memorial Scholarship

Background:

Marlin R. Scarborough was president of the South Dakota Board of Regents at the time of his death on June 22, 1987. He was a 1961 graduate of South Dakota State University in the College of Agriculture and Biological Sciences, majoring in Animal Science. The Marlin R. Scarborough Board of Regents Memorial Scholarship was established with gifts from family and friends.

Amount and Selection:

The Scholarship provides $1,500 to a student who is a junior at the time funding is received. The award is allocated to the university for disbursement to the recipient in $750 installments during the Fall 2023 and Spring 2024 semesters.

Each South Dakota public university nominates one student for the Scarborough Scholarship. The Regents' Scholarship Committee evaluates the nominees and makes a recommendation to the Board, which awards the Scholarship. The recipient of the scholarship will be approved at the Board of Regents at the meeting.

Selection Process:

Universities may nominate students who:

- ✓ are public university students,
- ✓ have a cumulative college grade point average of at least 3.5; and,
- ✓ who will be classified by the University as a junior at the time the student receives funding.

Application Procedure:

- ✓ Complete the Scarborough Scholarship Application Form.
- ✓ Complete an essay explaining your leadership, academic, and community service qualities to this application form. Type the essay on 8.5 x 11-inch paper and do not exceed three double-spaced pages using one side of the page. Attach the essay to the application form. An essay is required. Applications without essays will not be considered.

Provide a completed application form and your essay to the NSU Financial Aid Office by February 28th, 2023.
