Section 1. Existing Course Title and Description

If changing from a course that previously had only a lecture or laboratory component to a composite course, identify both the course and laboratory numbers (xxx and xxxL) and credit hours associated with each. Provide the complete course description as it appears in the system course database including pre-requisites, co-requisites, and registration restrictions.

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
ENGL 488	Literary Studies Review	1

Course Description

A review of the historical and generic categories of literary expression, with particular attention to the distinctions between literary periods and literary works representative of those periods; a review of vocabulary specific to literary study; preparation for exit examinations; review of students' portfolios. Required of all English majors immediately preceding or during the semester of their graduation; take in conjunction with the capstone seminar course. S/U grading. Co-requisite: ENGL 422, ENGL 425 or ENGL 490

Section 2. Modification(s) Requested

2.1. This modification will include (place an "X" in the box for all that apply):

- A change in description/subject matter content (enter revised description below).

This course prepares students for their career path within the major through examining internship options, careers options, and graduate level study options available to English majors. Students will examine all facets of the major (literature, creative writing, rhetoric, composition), including distinctions between literary periods and literary works representative of those periods, creative writing genres, rhetorical studies, and composition studies. Required of all English majors during their sophomore or junior year. S/U grading. Pre-requisite: ENGL 284

Note: Course descriptions are short, concise summaries that typically do not exceed 75 words. DO: Address the content of the course and write descriptions using active verbs (e.g., explore, learn, develop, etc.). DO NOT: Repeat the title of the course, layout the syllabus, use pronouns such as "we" and "you," or rely on specialized jargon, vague phrases, or clichés.
