Section 1. Existing Course Title and Description

If changing from a course that previously had only a lecture or laboratory component to a composite course, identify both the course and laboratory numbers (xxx and xxxL) and credit hours associated with each. Provide the complete course description as it appears in the system course database including pre-requisites, co-requisites, and registration restrictions.

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
BFS 7722	Investment Management	3

Course Description
This course covers economics and markets; portfolio management, including the equity and debt markets; alternative investments; investment policy, client objectives and risk tolerance; performance management and evaluation, measuring return and risk, and establishing benchmarks; legal considerations; and, ethics in preparation for the national Certified Financial Trust Advisor (CFTA) exam and certificate.

Section 2. Modification(s) Requested

2.1. This modification will include (place an "X" in the box for all that apply):

☒ A change in description/subject matter content (enter revised description below).

This course provides an in-depth analysis of investment management, covering theoretical foundations, asset valuation techniques, risk management, and portfolio construction. Students will explore equities, fixed-income securities, derivatives, alternative investments, and emerging trends in investment management. The course will emphasize both quantitative and qualitative decision-making frameworks used by professional investors.

Note: Course descriptions are short, concise summaries that typically do not exceed 75 words. DO: Address the content of the course and write descriptions using active verbs (e.g., explore, learn, develop, etc.). DO NOT: Repeat the title of the course, layout the syllabus, use pronouns such as “we” and “you,” or rely on specialized jargon, vague phrases, or clichés.
