Section 2. Review of Course

2.1. Will this be a unique or common course (place an "X" in the appropriate box)?

⊠ Unique Course

If the request is for a unique course, institutions must review the common course catalog in the system course database to determine if a comparable common course already exists. List the two closest course matches in the common course catalog and provide a brief narrative explaining why the proposed course differs from those listed. If a search of the common course catalog determines an existing common course exists, complete the Authority to Offer an Existing Course Form. Courses requested without an attempt to find comparable courses will not be reviewed.

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
EDAD 760	HR Systems/Community Leadership	3
EDAD 740	Community Relations/Personnel Leadership	3

Provide explanation of differences between proposed course and existing system catalog courses below:

The proposed course differs from the two existing courses as it addresses organizational behavior in education as it relates to student development. The course description for EDAD 760 states, "Human resource and community leadership at the school district level." The proposed course takes a more streamlined intentional approach to fostering development of all human resources within a school building.

The course description listed for EDAD 740 states, "Community relations and personnel leadership at the building level." While this course addresses personnel leadership at the building level, the proposed course adds critical student development as part of the whole-building development process.

Participants in the proposed course will gain proficiencies for recruiting and retaining teachers and staff while learning dispositions and behaviors that increase productivity and foster a positive school climate. Topics will include conflict resolution at the adult and student level, effective communication, and research-based programming for students that maximizes student achievement.
