Department of Labor regulations require the following criteria be met when filing a labor condition application on behalf of an employee:

Wages: Employers must pay nonimmigrants at least the local prevailing wage or the employer's actual wage, whichever is higher, and pay for non-productive time. Employers must offer nonimmigrants benefits on the same basis as U.S. workers.

Working Conditions: Employers must provide working conditions for nonimmigrants, which will not adversely affect the working conditions of workers similarly employed.

Strike, Lockout or Work Stoppage: Employers attest that there is no strike or lockout in the occupational classification at the place of employment on the date the labor condition application is filed.

Notice: Employers must provide working conditions for nonimmigrants, which will not adversely affect the working conditions of workers similarly employed.

The Labor Condition Application is available for inspection at:
South Dakota Board of Regents System International Employment Services
Morrill Hall Room 315, Box 2201, Brookings, SD 57007

Complaint alleging misrepresentation of material facts in the labor condition application and/or failure to comply with the terms of the labor condition application may be filed with any office of the Wage and Hour Division of the US Department of Labor.
