Section 1. Course Title and Description

If the course contains a lecture and laboratory component, identify both the lecture and laboratory numbers (xxx and xxxL) and credit hours associated with each. Provide the complete description as you wish it to appear in the system database in Colleague and the Course Inventory Report including pre-requisites, co-requisites, and registration restrictions.

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
INDG/SS 361	The Traveling Classroom: A Native Cultural Immersion Experience	3

NOTE: The Enrollment Services Center assigns the short, abbreviated course title that appears on transcripts. The short title is limited to 30 characters (including spaces); meaningful but concise titles are encouraged due to space limitations in Colleague.

Course Description	This course offers a unique look and an immersed experience at our diverse tribal communities in our region. Participants will gain educational cultural experiences through readings, video, writings, elder interviews and on site cultural and service activities. Through this course students will better understand and be able to critically analyze the background of Native American and the affects within our contemporary native communities. This course is designed to equip any student within any discipline with the ability to be a strong multicultural leader in today's workforce.

NOTE: Course descriptions are short, concise summaries that typically do not exceed 75 words. DO: Address the content of the course and write descriptions using active verbs (e.g., explore, learn, develop, etc.). DO NOT: Repeat the title of the course, layout the syllabus, use pronouns such as "we" and "you," or rely on specialized jargon, vague phrases, or clichés.

Section 2. Review of Course

2.1. Was the course first offered as an experimental course (place an “X” in the appropriate box)?

- Yes (if yes, provide the course information below) No

2.2. Will this be a unique or common course (place an “X” in the appropriate box)?

If the request is for a unique course, verify that you have reviewed the common course catalog via Colleague and the system Course Inventory Report to determine if a comparable common course already exists. List the two closest course matches in the common course catalog and provide a brief narrative explaining why the proposed course differs from those listed. If a search of the common course catalog determines an existing common course exists, complete the Authority to Offer an Existing Course Form.

Unique Course

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
SS 360	The Traveling Classroom	1-4

Provide explanation of differences between proposed course and existing system catalog courses below:

This is modeled off SS 360 and will offer a traveling classroom specifically for regional Native American culture and issues. In contrast, the current SS 360 – offered in the Criminal Justice and Sociology programs at NSU – introduces students to work places throughout the eastern portion of the state related to those fields (e.g., drug rehab centers, juvenile detention, state prison, etc.).

- 3.9. Will this course equate (i.e., be considered the same course for degree completion) with any other unique or common courses in the common course system database in Colleague and the Course Inventory Report?
 Yes No
If yes, indicate the course(s) to which the course will equate (add lines as needed):

Prefix & No.	Course Title
INDG 361	Traveling Classroom: A Native Cultural Immersion Experience
SS 361	Traveling Classroom: A Native Cultural Immersion Experience

- 3.10. Is this prefix approved for your university?
 Yes No
If no, provide a brief justification below:
 The prefix INDG – Native and Indigenous Studies – has been proposed in conjunction with new courses and our revised Native and Indigenous Studies minor. We believe this prefix better reflects the scope and perspective of the new courses as well as the revised minor.
