Section 1. Course Title and Description

If the course contains a lecture and laboratory component, identify both the lecture and laboratory numbers (xxx and xxxL) and credit hours associated with each. Provide the complete description as you wish it to appear in the system course database, including pre-requisites, co-requisites, and registration restrictions.

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
PSYC 211	Introduction to Psychology of Sexuality and Gender	3

NOTE: The Enrollment Services Center assigns the short, abbreviated course title that appears on transcripts. The short title is limited to 30 characters (including spaces); meaningful but concise titles are encouraged due to space limitations in the student information system.

Course Description
This course is an overview of psychological issues related to sexuality and gender. The course gives an overview of the body of research in psychology that addresses basic biological components of sexual development, sexual orientation, and gender identity.

NOTE: Course descriptions are short, concise summaries that typically do not exceed 75 words. DO: Address the content of the course and write descriptions using active verbs (e.g., explore, learn, develop, etc.). DO NOT: Repeat the title of the course, layout the syllabus, use pronouns such as "we" and "you," or rely on specialized jargon, vague phrases, or clichés.

Section 2. Review of Course

2.1. Will this be a unique or common course (place an "X" in the appropriate box)?

Unique Course

If the request is for a unique course, institutions must review the common course catalog in the system course database to determine if a comparable common course already exists. List the two closest course matches in the common course catalog and provide a brief narrative explaining why the proposed course differs from those listed. If a search of the common course catalog determines an existing common course exists, complete the Authority to Offer an Existing Course Form. Courses requested without an attempt to find comparable courses will not be reviewed.

Prefix & No.	Course Title	Credits
PSYC 367	Psychological Gender Issues	3
PSYC 368	Psychology of Sexuality	3

Provide explanation of differences between proposed course and existing system catalog courses below:

PSYC 367 focuses on the biological and sociological development of gender, gender roles and sexuality. PSYC 368 focuses on specific sexual problems related to pornography, STDs, sexual intimacy, and sexual aggression. PSYC 211 will focus on research in psychology related to topics of sexuality and gender. PSYC 211 is mapped to content guidelines established by the American Psychological Association. .
