ABOUT NORTHERN STATE UNIVERSITY

Northern State University was established by the legislature (SDCL 13-59-1) and authorized by the Board of Regents to deliver graduate and undergraduate programs; promote excellence in teaching and learning; support research, scholarly and creative activities; provide service to the state of South Dakota, the region and the nation; and to place a special emphasis on E-learning in the university curriculum and service.

Founded in 1901, Northern State University is a premier liberal arts regional institution characterized by outstanding instruction, extraordinary community relations, and excellent co-curricular opportunities. Northern is consistently ranked as one of the best public baccalaureate institutions in the Midwest by U.S. News and World Report. Our 1,750 (FTE) students pursue one of 59 majors and 46 minors and hail from 42 states and 42 foreign countries. The campus has seen more than $120 million in privately funded building projects and scholarships within a decade, including 30 million in three new residential facility constructed since 2017.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Northern State University (Northern) acknowledges South Dakota as the ancestral territory of the Santee, Yankton, and Teton Lakota, which is an alliance known as the Oceti Sakowin (o-che-tee sha-koh-ween) (Seven Council Fires). Oceti Sakowin is historically known as the Sioux by non-Native people. The nine Native Nations that share the state's geography include: Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe, Crow Creek Sioux Tribe, Flandreau Santee Sioux Tribe, Lower Brule Sioux Tribe, Oglala Sioux Tribe, Rosebud Sioux Tribe, Sisseton-Wahpeton Oyate, Standing Rock Sioux Tribe, and Yankton Sioux Tribe. Northern State University acknowledges that before this land was called South Dakota, it was home to many Native Nations indigenous to this area. It is with profound respect that we acknowledge the indigenous peoples of this land past, present and future.

BACKGROUND

The President's Taskforce on Campus Culture and Climate (hereafter Taskforce) was created in the fall of 2021 as part of the University's Strategic Planning efforts and replaced the Diversity Action Pillar Team. More information on the Taskforce and Strategic Planning may be found <https://northern.edu/mission-and-strategic-planning>.

The President charged the Taskforce to collect and assess comprehensive faculty, staff, and student data and provide actionable recommendations to the Executive Team to enhance campus culture and climate for all. Specifically:

1. Collect and assess comprehensive student/faculty/staff data.
2. Provide actionable recommendations to Executive Team to enhance campus culture and climate for all.

Taskforce is organized into three subcommittees to focus on campus culture based upon populations:

Students: Sean Blackburn, Britt Lorenz, and Jacob Swanson
Staff: Veronica Paulson, Susan Bostian, and Lara Nelson
Faculty: Michael Wanous, Amber Henderson, and Kristi Brownfield

The following summaries and initial recommendations were created by the subcommittees, reviewed by the Taskforce in toto, and advanced to President Schnoor on May 12, 2022.

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Objective 1: Collect and assess comprehensive student/faculty/staff data.

A. Campus Climate Forums

The Taskforce hosted two Climate Forums on Tuesday, January 25, 2022, to collect and assess comprehensive faculty, staff, and student data. This data have been used to create actionable recommendations to submit to the Executive Leadership Team with the goal of enhancing campus culture and climate for all as described in this initial report.

All faculty, staff, and students were invited to participate in these forums (Round Table Conversations) hosted in the Centennial Rooms of the Avera Student Center. The faculty and staff gathered at 2pm and students at 6pm. Fellow faculty, staff, and students served as facilitators and lead small group conversations (See Appendix E). Each of the forums lasted approximately an hour. Feedback was not attributed to individuals.

All faculty, staff, and students were also invited to submit feedback electronically at: https://northern.formstack.com/forms/presidents_taskforce_on_campus_culture_and_climate.

Provost Wanous presented the SkyFactor 2020 campus climate survey data with faculty and staff during the Faculty and Staff forum. After the initial presentation, faculty and staff separated into different spaces to increase participant comfort while conducting the round table conversations.

Administration did not participate in either round table conversation in order to increase participant frankness and confidence in the privacy of feedback shared. Jacob Swanson, Susan Bostian, and Kristi Brownfield collected forum summaries from individual Table Facilitators. (See Appendix F. for Responsibilities of Table Facilitators.)

B. Skyfactor Campus Climate Survey

The Skyfactor Campus Climate Survey was first administered at Northern in spring of 2020 as part of a South Dakota Board of Regents initiative commonly referred to as intellectual diversity. The taskforce re-administered the survey in 2022 to allow Northern to gather updated data and to track changes over the past two years.

All benefits eligible employees and degree-seeking undergraduate and graduate students received an invitation in their e-mail to participate in this voluntary survey from February 28 until March 16, 2022. All responses were anonymous and cannot be identified. The survey took approximately ten minutes to complete.

Campus communications were distributed before and multiple times throughout the survey administration period. Special communications were sent to athletic coaches, academic advisors, and more than 100 student leaders to explain and promote the survey. Paper posters and digital signage were distributed throughout campus. Additional social media materials were distributed across campus and student organizations. Thanks to the Student Government Association, every tenth student who completed the survey by March 16 received $10 in Thunder Bucks. A temporary course entitled “Complete the Campus Climate Survey” was added to every student’s D2L account. When students clicked on the “course”, they learned more information about completing the survey. The “course” disappeared on March 17 and had no bearing on a student’s academic record.

The Taskforce recommends administering the Skyfactor Campus Climate Survey every two years going forward. While it is tempting to select a new survey every couple years, the Taskforce recommends the ongoing use of Skyfactor to build longitudinal data that will more accurately track changes in perception of campus climate over time.

Survey data with peer benchmarks will be available to the Campus Culture and Climate Committee during the summer of 2022. See Table 1. for survey participation rates.

Objective 2: Provide actionable recommendations to Executive Team to enhance campus culture and climate for all.

The Steering Group (all Taskforce members) provide Main Themes and Recommendations in Section 1. The Taskforce Subcommittees provide summaries and initial recommendations in Sections 2, 3, and 4. Final recommendations from the former Diversity Action Pillar Team may be found in Appendix G.

SECTION 1. MAIN THEMES

The Taskforce developed the following main themes after reviewing the 2020 Skyfactor results and Campus Climate Forum feedback.

Main Theme 1: The work of assessing and improving campus culture must be continuous and sustained throughout the life of the university. The efforts initiated by the Taskforce should continue with the creation of the Northern State University Campus Culture and Climate Committee, Opportunity for All Council, and the Committee on Inclusion and Belonging. See Appendix A. and B. for committee charges and compositions.

Main Theme 2: Strong learning communities have well established and productive process to welcome new members into the culture in ways that are inclusive, build a sense of belonging, and produce successful new faculty, staff, and students. Successful models of onboarding are intentional, regularly assessed, and continuously improved. Enhanced onboarding and welcoming for all members of the university community emerged as a strong theme from faculty, staff, and students.

Students: Onboarding begins when a student first visits campus for an Admissions tour and does not conclude until the completion of the first year. The university should develop and invest in a mandatory and comprehensive first year experience program that ties all onboarding experiences together using developmental and evidence-based retention practices to support student success. A specific focus on engagement should be considered for our post COVID-19 campus that has seen losses in this area.

Staff: Onboarding for staff begins with the application and appointment process and does not conclude until the staff member has learned every part of the job. Successful staff onboarding is a shared responsibility between Human Resources, Executive Leadership Team members (responsible for the divisions) and the individual's supervisor. The university should develop and invest in an efficient, flexible, and comprehensive onboarding process to enhance unit performance, improve staff morale and reduce employee turnover, and advance student success.

Faculty: Onboarding for faculty begins with the application and appointment process and does not conclude for many semesters. New faculty have unique transitional challenges and needs for technical, pedagogical, and functional development. New faculty onboarding should support the emergence of faculty who are prepared to successfully execute the multifaceted roles they play within a university community, contribute to faculty morale and retention, and enhance student learning and retention.

Main Theme 3: The need to intentionally build and support our increasingly diverse, engaged, inclusive, welcoming and supportive campus culture emerged as a significant theme. This work should be informed by the 2022 Skyfactor Campus Climate Survey. The Campus Culture and Climate Committee should carefully review this data and make tangible recommendations to the Executive Leadership Team to improve culture for our historically underrepresented populations consistent with Opportunity for All.

Main Theme 4: The need to improve campus communications emerged as significant theme. Students, faculty, and staff shared frustrations about a "lack of communication." While considered by many to be a universal complaint in higher education, Northern administration should commit to the significant task of discovering how faculty, staff, and students want to receive communications. Equally important, the Northern community should foster and develop a culture where all stakeholders actively engage established communication streams. This shared responsibility has too often been seen in a top-down modality. All members of engaged and healthy learning community should take responsibility for broad and meaningful communications between students, faculty, staff, and administration.

SECTION 2. STAFF

The items below represent the clear and consistent themes/concerns/areas of improvement from the Staff Group from:

- Climate Survey
- Feedback Sessions

ONBOARDING/TRAINING:

The consistent theme was that employees seem to receive minimal training from new supervisors, are continually in a ‘baptism by fire’ mode. There is not a great deal of formal training going on.

- NSU response:
 - There is some information to help supervisors with onboarding on the HR Web page – it’s called a New Hire Onboarding Checklist – that covers basic topics.
 - We need to figure out how to get people to locate this information
 - Departments must create a training ‘plan’ for new hires
 - The plan should include
 - Basics of the department
 - What software systems are used
 - Who will do the training
 - Print screens and documentation of systems
 - Formally request training on purchasing, finance, etc. for new staff
 - NSU could create a formal Mentor Program to pair new staff members with current employees to assist over the first year
 - NSU needs to partner more with the community to have speakers come to campus
 - NSU could do more with BHR training programs to allow staff to attend for personal development
 - Create more team building activities; more opportunities to connect and meet others across campus, more casual and more frequent interactions

COMMUNICATION/TRANSPARENCY/VISIBILITY:

The common theme here was that the Administration does not share information or does not share information in a timely manner. Staff indicate they want to be more involved in the decision-making process on matters affecting the university and its staff.

- NSU response:
 - CSA and NFE staff have requested the formation of a Staff Senate.
 - The Staff feel this is necessary to be recognized as a formal group in order to ‘legitimize’ the work they would like to do. (See Appendix C and D).
 - Staff would like to see a spot in the Monday Newsletter each week with quick updates from President Schnoor/Provost Wanous/VP Paulson.
 - HR needs to communicate where/how to find personnel updates – which are on the web approximately the first of every month including hires, terminations, and promotions.
 - HR recently updated the new hire report to include who the new person replaced
 - NSU could hold more regular town halls, even if by Zoom

- Communications has added a link to the BOR meeting agenda in the newsletter
- Communications and Marketing could work on a formal, clear, consistent communications 'plan' where we are providing updates from BOR, NSU, Legislative, etc.

PAY/WORKLOAD/BURNOUT:

The Reduction in Force that NSU did in 2019 is still cause for consternation. Many support staff were required to take on additional workload due to 15 positions being eliminated. No salary increases were given to any staff, again due to the budget concerns. Staff comments on continually being asked to do more with less resources.

- NSU response:
 - 6% increase from the legislature will help
 - Can we provide free admission for any staff member (family pay ½ price) for any athletic or fine arts event?
 - Improve education discounts for any staff member taking online classes not offered at NSU
 - Provide more technology accesses to student workers to help departments with workload
 - Thorough assessment of everyone's job duties – to see what processes, if any, can be removed
 - Eliminate any unnecessary or outdate committees
 - Eliminate unnecessary services
 - How can we reward staff for committee work – seems to be the same people volunteering
 - Staff may need additional training in some areas; travel, purchasing. Look into making more forms available through DocuSign. They want more technology, want to go paperless to the extent possible

ADMINISTRATION:

Staff suggest they do not feel valued by administration. They feel like it takes too long to get answers from administration.

- NSU response:
 - How do we get leadership in front of staff more so they can ask questions?
 - Should we be doing more employee recognition 'events' or 'awards'?
 - Should we change annual service anniversary lunch to something more frequent; say quarterly or monthly?
 - If monthly, could announce new employees and retirements at the same event
 - We did hire a Dean of the School of Education as well as an Athletic Director; these openings were brought up multiple times

SECTION 3. STUDENTS

SENSE OF BELONGING:

- Students during COVID obviously didn't feel involved or belonging
- Transfer students indicated they felt lost
- Sense of belonging – not enough cross-cultural programming/opportunity
- Nontraditional student did not feel compelled to go to things

- Create a one-stop-shop during first year residence hall move-in day and Wolf Pack Welcome to bring university resources together to support a smooth student transition (See NSU Move-in / Wolf Pack Welcome Coordination Committee Fall 2021 Committee Feedback Report).
- Consider a bulk or wholesale “sale” during the one stop shop.
- Find ways to increase faculty participation in Fall Move-in (See NSU Move-in / Wolf Pack Welcome Coordination Committee Fall 2021 Committee Feedback Report).
- Increase the institutional budget by $6,000 to $30,000 for New Student Programs to correspond with changing needs within HOWL, Wolf Pack Welcome, Spring New Student Orientation, and First Year Seminar Peer Leaders program.

- Create a Crisis Response Team from local clergy and counselors to assist in campus emergencies.
- Audit and prepare recommendations to update and replace security cameras across campus.
- Explore installing blue lights across campus or the utilization of a safety application like RAVE Mobile Safety.

SECTION 4. FACULTY

FACULTY AREAS OF CONCERN AND IMPROVEMENT:

Transparency and visibility:

Let people know what is going on and why changes are occurring, particularly when concerning leadership positions and future university planning

Unilateral or top-down decision-making is common when constituents would prefer more shared governance/input on decisions related to their workplace and departments

Administration and leadership are not accessible – constituents want regular interactions with leadership beyond the occasional event

Communications:

Communications are poor across the board (admin-to-all, faculty-to-staff, admin-to-students, admin-to-faculty); this includes a lack of consistency between different areas on campus (e.g., SOE/SOB vs. CAS communications)

There is a desire for regular information that includes both the positive (e.g., featured faculty/staff, retirements, new hires) and the negatives (e.g., numbers and budget); these communications should also offer potential “call to actions,” particularly for negative updates; do not just tell constituents information, also tell them things they can do with that information
Follow-up and waiting for information from administration is too long

Burnout and compensation:

Many people are working overloads/overtime, asked to do more with less and no real compensation or recognition of that effort (e.g., staff time for committees, release time for faculty, etc.)

SALARY

Look at and regularly offer alternate forms of compensation when money is not an option

Need time and space for social interactions

Lack of autonomy and more constant micromanagement contributes to burnout

Evaluate the necessity of service – everyone is doing too much; what can we cut or is unneeded; how can we recognize and compensate people doing more than their fair load and invite those that are not contributing as much to the table

Inconsistent application of policies and standards depending on area of campus

Training/Onboarding:

More inclusive and comprehensive training for new faculty/staff – this could include DEI training

Better team building and connections across campus for new hires

Resources for thinking about broader issues around these concerns:

INITIAL RECOMMENDATIONS FOR FACULTY:

1. Improve faculty onboarding by creating a first-year new faculty training experience with monthly or bi-monthly meetings so that new faculty training is consistent across campus and not the sole responsibility of in-service and chairs:
 - a. Clarify expectations of in-service attendance in new appointment letters
 - b. More focus on teaching during in-service, particularly on learning management software and usage during the early part of the week
 - c. Consider the place of adjunct and instructor training with expanded new faculty onboarding
 - d. Monthly or bi-monthly meetings with new faculty during their first year would allow for deeper and broader coverage of issues of concern to new faculty including but not limited to:
 - i. Teaching, research, and service expectations
 1. Both broadly but also specific to the standards document, APEs, and promotion and tenure
 - ii. Learning and academic support services available to students
 - iii. Research and teaching support services available to faculty
 - iv. Internal/external grants and research funding
 - v. HR (i.e., retirement, appointment terms, salary formulas, etc.)
 - vi. Library offerings for students and faculty
 - vii. Brief introductions to curricular processes (e.g., Academic Affairs and program assessment)
 - viii. Athletics and student athlete expectations
 - ix. Faculty travel
 - x. Diversity, equity, inclusion and what this looks like in SD/at NSU. This is to keep us in compliance with the newly passed SD House Bill 1012.
 - xi. The opportunity to meet key figures from various departments across campus such as administrative leadership, athletics, faculty senate president and members, academic advisors, student government leadership, student affairs and student success leadership, and deans and chairs when relevant to the topic of discussion.
 - e. Peer mentorship program improvement with training for faculty mentors when selected
 - i. Assess the feasibility of expanding the number of mentors per new faculty to two, one mentor from within the department and the other mentor from a different college to create networks across campus for new faculty
 - f. Include mentorship and training opportunities for faculty with spring start
 - g. Create and implement a new faculty survey to better assess our orientation and training during their first year
2. Increase social activities and team building opportunities across campus
 - a. Collaborate with staff and students to offer these opportunities (e.g., Quiz Bowl)
 - b. Administration and leadership should be present and participate when possible
3. Clear and consistent communications plan for communications that includes:
 - a. Relevant external bodies and information: SD legislature, BOR, other BOR institutions, federal and state level departments of education

- b. Internal communications: Academic Affairs, Faculty Senate and Staff Council minutes, budget, administrative issues, HR, campus events, and so forth
 - c. Shared responsibilities for communication across administration
 - d. Clear plans for when information is shared
 - e. Share the plan with the campus so campus community knows when to anticipate what types of information (e.g., weekly, bi-monthly, quarterly, etc.)
 - f. Simple but multiple modalities for communication; archive the information on the intranet but also look for ways to deliver the content directly
 - i. Many do not know where to find information on the intranet and/or are unwilling to look it up
 - g. Offer the ability for recipients to customize their information flow; allow an opt-in/opt-out approach to the different information streams (e.g., someone could opt-in to the NSU news and BOR reports but opt-out of athletics updates)
- 4. Efficiency audit for service workload, processes, and tasks
 - a. Examine our processes for committee assignments
 - b. Look at committee and job descriptions for overlap/duplication and committee size, look at frequency of meetings
- 5. Examine and invest in alternate forms of compensation (e.g., salary/pay, course release, etc.) and recognition
 - a. Extend more frequent positive recognition (no-cost/low-cost options)
- 6. Examine and invest in options for better integration to campus/community life for faculty from marginalized groups specifically. This seems important given that it is clear from the Skyfactor (and anecdotal conversations) that the experience of faculty from traditionally marginalized groups (i.e., faculty of color, queer faculty, women) is different
 - a. Review the SkyFactor 2022 results in detail for each group.
 - b. Training around the topic of cultural intelligence for diverse populations and ensuring that there is opportunity for all faculty on campus.
 - c. Engage in intentional and regular conversations about the safety and needs (physical, physiological, and emotional) of marginalized populations.

APPENDIX A.

APPENDIX C.

Staff Senate Shared Governance Proposal

Project Title: Staff Senate

Date Approved by Staff Senate Working Group: 03/08/2022

Date Approved by Senior Cabinet: TBD

Project Description:

The Staff Senate is an organization consisting of NFE and CSA staff at Northern State University (NSU) who have been elected to represent their peers on the NSU campus through shared governance with Faculty Senate, Student Government Association, and the Executive Leadership Team.

Project Justification:

On November 4, 2021, the President's Campus Culture and Climate Taskforce invited staff of Northern State University to create a "Staff Council" to improve communications and the working environment throughout campus as communicated in an email from Human Resources:

Northern currently has an academic council to represent the needs of faculty and a student council to represent the needs of the students. However, there is currently no council to represent the needs of NFE and CSA staff members. This council will be run by NFE and CSA staff representatives, not upper administration. The hope is that this council can improve social connections, communications, connect departments throughout campus, and create a better working environment for all staff at Northern State University.

The Staff Senate Working Group proposes the creation of Staff Senate at Northern State University to fulfill this request of addressing staff issues, and to ensure shared governance for all constituents of the university. (See attached Staff Senate By-Laws)

There is a demonstrated absence in shared governance on behalf of staff at Northern. In the Higher Learning Commission's criteria for accreditation, criterion 5.A.1 states, "shared governance at the institution engages its internal constituencies – including its governing board, administration, faculty, staff, and students – through planning, policies, and procedures"; however, Northern's Year Four Assurance Review document, only mentions staff as having a role with standing committees or councils. The remaining documentation speaks directly to the roles Faculty Senate and Student Government Association have in shared governance but overlooks any representation of staff.

The absence of shared governance for staff is also evidenced by the lack of transparency in the communication following the 2020 RIF, which involved only Northern staff, as no faculty or administrators were impacted, along with the plans to redistribute their responsibilities to other staff members. This RIF had a major impact upon the work environment for many staff that is still felt today.

Furthermore, the results of the 2020 Skyfactor Campus Climate Survey highlight the degree to which NSU staff do not feel valued or appreciated. For instance, the statement, "This institution encourages faculty and staff to openly share their ideas" received a 68.7% rating from Northern faculty and staff, signaling an issue of concern. Similarly, the statement, "Administration respects what faculty and staff think” received a 62% rating. Further evidence can be found in additional survey statements related to perceptions of administration in their value and consideration for staff and faculty.

Finally, the President’s Campus Culture and Climate Taskforce Open Forum and Roundtable discussion on January 25, 2022, posed the question to participants, “How could administration better demonstrate care and respect for faculty and staff input?” which suggests administration is aware there are issues related to Northern's staff working environment.

While staff, faculty, and students do have an assigned representative within the Executive Leadership Team, their representation across campus is not equal, i.e., faculty have additional representation to oversee their interests through their Faculty Senate President and students have additional representation through their Student Government Association President. The proposal to create a Staff Senate that is equally recognized within shared governance begins to address this imbalance.

This proposal includes a Staff Senate President with similar roles and responsibilities as the Faculty Senate and Student Government Association presidents to represent all CSA and NFE staff of Northern State University.

1. Staff Senate has drafted Bylaws to ensure it is representative of all staff members at Northern State University, creating collaboration between CSA and NFE staff members.
2. Staff Senate will include a committee for CSA that will take on the responsibilities of the former Career Service Committee.
3. Through Staff Senate’s involvement in shared governance and the President’s Extended Cabinet, it would ensure staff perspectives are represented at the highest levels of the university where impactful decisions are made.

To achieve these goals, the Staff Senate Working Group has proposed several programs or initiatives. These include the development of a Staff Mentoring Program to aid in the onboarding of new staff members. Additionally, Staff Senate would create opportunities to recognize staff contributions on campus, outside of the annual recognition for years served. Staff Senate would also like to prioritize professional development opportunities. These are only a few of the initiatives identified by the Staff Senate Working Group since the initial meeting in December 2021.

Staff Senate Assets:

- CSA Committee Bylaws
- CSA Committee Scholarship Fund
- Staff Senate Bylaws

Needed Assets:

- Representation in Shared Governance
- Representation in President’s Extended Cabinet

Appreciative Question: Imagine if at Northern State University, both CSA and NFE staff had a unified voice on campus to build community, influence decision-making, and support the enhancement of the work environment.

APPENDIX D.

NORTHERN STATE UNIVERSITY

The NSU Staff Senate shall consist of 17 Senators plus 1 NFE At-Large and 1 CSA At-Large for a total of 19 members apportioned as outlined above to ensure fair representation of all staff.

ARTICLE II: Membership

Selection:

The selection process shall begin in March of each year, with a three-year term beginning in June of the same year (all Senators, incoming and outgoing, attend the May meeting for purposes of continuity). To avoid a complete turnover in membership in any given year, the selection process will be held each year with one third of the members reaching the end of their term each year. Those eligible for election are Staff who are not on probation or subject to disciplinary action at the time of the election.

Voting:

A two-part selection process shall be utilized. First, beginning in March (deadline: Spring Break), an inquiry memo will be sent to all CSA and NFE employees requesting nominations for Staff Senate (self-nominations are permitted).

Nominations will be due the first Friday after Spring Break. Second, a list would then be compiled from names submitted, and willingness to serve shall be ascertained from each candidate by the Secretary of the Senate^[1]. Election of candidates will be held in April. Voting will be done by electronic or paper ballot by staff within each nominee's category.

Election Process:

The first election of Staff Senators shall take place under the direction of members of the working committee promoting the Staff Senate. The terms of office shall vary slightly with this first election to ensure one-third of the members serving a one-year term, one-third of the members serving a two-year term, and the final one-third of members serving a three-year term. Members elected thereafter shall serve the three-year terms as specified in the Bylaws. In the case of a tie vote, the Senate shall vote on the two candidates to select the Senator. The current Senate President will utilize the tally of the balloting to notify the new members. The ballot results will be kept for one year in case a replacement is needed for any member of the Senate.

Resignation: In the event a Senate member resigns, the replacement for the newly open position shall be appointed by the Senate's Executive Officers, as defined by Article III, from the selection list maintained from the most recent election. The selection shall be approved by the entire Senate. The appointed member shall serve the remainder of the past member's term.

Changes in Status:

If a Senator's status changes, through promotion, transfer, or other personnel action, that Senator shall continue in his/her original role and representation on the Staff Senate until the end of his/her current term. The only exception to this would be if the position change occurs within a month of the Senator's election; then the second-highest vote-getter in the Senator's representative category could be appointed in the Senator's stead.

Responsibility to Attend Meetings:

Senate members are expected to attend all meetings in-hybrid (i.e., in-person, via online platform, etc.). A member may be excused for the following reasons: sick, personal, or annual leave, or professional obligations. If a member misses three consecutive meetings or six meetings total (excused or unexcused), the member is subject to dismissal, which will be determined by the Senate Executive Officers and approved by vote of the entire Senate. Senators will be released from normal work duties without loss of pay or other benefits to attend official Staff Senate meetings or functions.

Term Limits:

Senate members will be limited to two consecutive terms (six years), regardless of which area you are representing (including Senators at-large). Persons interested in further Senate service must leave the Senate for at least one year before being eligible again.

^[1] For the first election, this person will be nominated by the working committee. All subsequent will follow voting procedures as described by the aforementioned bylaws.

Responsibility to Represent Constituents:

Senate members are responsible for assisting the Secretary of the Senate to maintain lists of the university staff members by category. Senators are further responsible for communicating regularly with their constituents, responding to any questions from constituents regarding Senate actions or meetings, and bringing any questions from constituents to the floor of the Senate for discussion. Senators must then bring any responses, actions, votes, or resolutions back to their constituents after said discussion. Senators understand that they represent all staff members on campus (and are not bound by payroll classification or by representative category). Any Senator can bring a question from any staff member for consideration by the full Senate. Any staff member can contact any Senator to request representation on any question. Staff Senate will function as a productive component of the operation and function of the university. If there is an employee-specific problem, appropriate venues and mechanisms should be utilized to address complaints or appeals before bringing the issue to the Senate. Staff Senate represents all employees and deals with issues on a campus-wide level for the entire university.

Staff Senate Committees

1. The Staff Senate shall maintain and develop committees necessary for self-governance and support the mission of Staff Senate. The three standing committees will be the Civil Service Act Employees (CSA) Committee, Nonfaculty Exempt Employees (NFE) Committee, and the Election Committee. Other committees may be added by Addendum. These committees shall be chaired by elected Senators. All Senators will serve on at least one committee. Committee membership is not limited to elected Staff Senators; volunteers from the entire staff campus community may serve.

Diversity Action Pillar Team Final Recommendations

BACKGROUND: President Schnoor requested feedback on Strategic Priority Two and for the President's Taskforce on Culture and Climate during the September 3, 2021 meeting of the Diversity Action Pillar Team. Below represents the official feedback offered to the President's Taskforce from our last meeting on September 24, 2021.

Recommendations on Strategic Priority Two: Build an increasingly diverse, engaged, inclusive, welcoming, and supportive culture that nurtures achievement and success for all students, faculty and staff:

- We need a dedicated American Indian recruiter to engage with the tribal populations in South Dakota. Preferably, they could even live west river. This person would be an admissions recruiter and attend pow wows, be in the community, build relations across the state.
- Create a way to recognize and reward staff (CSA and NFE) for doing work in the area of inclusion and sense of belonging.
- Create a Staff Council to make shared governance more inclusive.
- Assess university committee membership on campus to see who is carrying the committee work of the university. Gender, race, employee classification, and tenure.
- Implement Key Result 83. Hire a Multicultural Student Affairs Coordinator to advance underrepresented student recruitment and student diversity, equity and inclusion training and programming.
- Create bystander/diversity Advocacy Training Program with a certificate, door sign, and syllabi notation.
- Create Recognized Student Organization Advisor training to support all student groups and ensure opportunity for all.
- Identify our campus EO (Equal Opportunity) officer and market to campus.
- Amend the sample syllabi to reference the ADA and EO grievance procedures.
- Create an onboarding document that all new employees would receive with committee and service opportunities on campus and how to join/access.

Recommendations on the Campus Climate Taskforce:

- The Taskforce should have three official subcommittees focused on sense of belonging and inclusion:

- Committee on Inclusion and Belonging: ethnicity, gender, ability, political affiliation, race, color, creed, religion, sex, national origin, ancestry, or disability.
- American Indian Advisory Committee (AIAC): to pull all institution efforts throughout the student life cycle into alignment.
- Gender Equity Committee: Assess, review, and create progress towards gender equity on campus.
- The Taskforce should create a strategic plan to organize the Taskforce work and priorities.

Future of this group:

- Diversity Action Pillar Team has sunset. Individuals who may want to serve one or more of the recommended official subcommittees of the taskforce should notify Megan Frewaldt.
